Established in 1914 and headquartered in Portland, Oregon, FOOD NORTHWEST is a food processing trade association dedicated to advancing the competitiveness and interests of its members. Our members include food and beverage companies with operations in Idaho, Oregon, and Washington and suppliers of goods and services to the food processing industry.

Processor members guide association activities and priorities and build relationships with industry peers through participation in events, and on committees and task forces on energy, environmental, government affairs, operations and technical, sustainability, and workforce.
